

Am I being lazy or grace-giving?

LAZINESS

- Laziness avoids action all together.
- Laziness is all about excessive sleep and not taking care of what we've been given.
- Laziness tells me that I don't need to try at all because it's too hard.
- Laziness relaxes healthy standards to make things easier.
- Laziness tells me I'll get to it another day until not-doing becomes a way of life.

GRACE

- Grace says I cannot earn God's love through work because I already have His love through Christ's blood.
- Grace accepts and encourages my human need for rest.
- Grace gives me permission to shed the rules that are poisoning my heart.
- Grace says I will have good days and bad ones, but God loves me through both.
- Grace says that I am to do the work God has invited me to do.
